- d. Unlimited access and exchange of information for members of the audit unit. B may be allowed to conduct or request audits of member units to conduct audits or audits of financial information or financial statements of unit members.

Management and Board of Director, where appropriate, shall be required to supply and confirm in written confirmation to “Director Management and those charged with governance’s representations” on the reliability of the documents and information provided as one of the requirements of Vietnamese Standard on Auditing, in which the Board of General Directors of Party A is responsible for preparation and presentation of its financial statements and assure that either unadjusted error or summary of unadjusted errors which Party B detected and summarized during the audit and review for the current fiscal year and errors related to previous fiscal years are immaterial to the financial statements of the audit and review.

Facilitating the Party B’s employees during the engagements at Party A’s office.

Paying service fees to Party B pursuant to Article 4 of this Contract.

2.2. Responsibilities of Party B:

Audit Responsibilities:

Party B shall perform the audit in accordance with Vietnamese Auditing Standards, laws, and relevant regulations. These standards require compliance with ethical requirements and the planning and performance of the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. The audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement due to fraud or error. The audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used, the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, and the overall presentation of the financial statements.

Due to inherent limitations of audits and internal controls, there is an unavoidable risk that material misstatements may not be detected, even though the audit and review are planned and performed in accordance with Vietnamese Auditing Standards.

Review Responsibilities:

Party B shall conduct the review in accordance with Vietnamese Standard on Review Engagements No. 2410 – Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity. The objective is to express whether Party B is aware of any material modifications that should be made to the interim financial statements for them to be in conformity with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the Vietnamese Accounting Regime, and relevant legal regulations.

The review procedures include primarily inquiries of personnel responsible for financial and accounting matters and analytical procedures, and are substantially less in scope than an audit. Consequently, Party B does not express an audit opinion on the interim financial statements.

The review engagement is not designed to detect all material matters that might require adjustment to the financial statements or to identify fraud, errors, or illegal acts. However, Party B will communicate any significant issues identified to Party A.

General Responsibilities for the audit and review Services:

Party B shall inform Party A of the audit and review plan, assign qualified and experienced auditors, and perform the engagement with independence, objectivity, and confidentiality. Party B shall not disclose any information to third parties without Party A's written consent, except as required by law or where such information is already publicly available.

Party B shall request Party A to confirm in writing the representations provided during the engagement. These representations are essential for Party B's conclusion and opinion in accordance with Vietnamese Auditing Standards and Standard No. 2410.

Party B shall assess internal control as part of audit risk assessment, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on its effectiveness. However, any significant deficiencies identified shall be communicated in writing to Party A.

ARTICLE III: REPORT THE AUDIT AND REVIEW

Review Reports:

Upon completion of the review, Party B shall deliver Party A with:
